The Hudson house after a storm brought down a large branch across the power line to their house in Box Hill South.

Both cars were severely damaged by the bricks brought down from the wall above their garage.

This disaster happened after the Wattle Park event held the previous Wednesday after which the Hudsons' hosted a large gathering and dinner at their home.

Rachel Edmonds at her engagement party with Brian O'Meara and his parents Tony and Judy. Proud parents Rob and Helen enjoyed the occasion with 265 guests at the Spirit Station Pier, Port Melbourne.

Rachel doesn't compete much these days but ran at the club relays. Rachel is a radiotherapist at the Austin Hospital, Olivier Newton-John Wellness Centre.

Lindsay Thomas from Tuckonie OC wrote

Peter Beggs mentioned to me tonight that he had heard on the Ericsson network that Sture Lantz had written a novel that was set in Australia. I have done a quick Google, and have come up with this link:

<http://www.adlibris.com/se/bok/tuckonie-9789187119392>

I'm sharing this email with a couple of other old hands who would probably remember Sture, the member of our founding triumvirate who actually gave the club its name, but I haven't been in touch with Sture for several years.

For those who don't read Swedish - Google Translate does a passable job of translating the blurb into English, but I can send that translation separately if you like.

Curiously, I don't know whether Sture is aware that "Tuckonie" was a black kid (played by actor John Meillon) in the radio serial "The Search for the Golden Boomerang" which ran for 1,444 episodes during the early 40s. Legend has it that Sture found the name in a koori dictionary, said to mean "little man lost in the bush".

Incidentally, I also have the piano score and words for "The Tuckonie Tree Song" - if anyone is a pianist, we could record it!

Don Fell's Comment

In the light of this information about "The Tuckonie Tree Song", maybe we should formally claim "Old Man Emu" as our club theme song. We could run the pants off a kangaroo!

Key dates

The next two pages list the club's orienteering events for the rest of 2015.

Please keep these dates free, especially the State Series at Joyce's Creek and the MTBO at Newstead on the Saligari Safari map.

You will notice that there are still some vacancies for course planners, organisers and event advisers for some events. Please contact Rob Edmonds if you would like to carry out one of these roles.

The new membership fee structure has been partly responsible for a significant rise in OV memberships this year.

Club reps have worked hard to recruit new members and reengage 'lost' members.

Unfortunately, our club has lost members, down from 107.

Colin and Jennifer Steer have retired.

Marion and Bill Johnson have also called it a day.

Big welcome to our latest recruit; Pam Brathwaite.

Club Relays

We fielded 5 teams in the club relays conducted at Eppalock South by Bayside Kangaroos. There were some logistical problems with the timing system and results have yet to be posted.
